PRESS RELEASE

The Marlborough Public Schools Music Department is proud to share that high school senior, Jackson Clemons, earned the top score on tuba for the 2023 All State Music Festival. As the number one tuba player in the state and a member of the All-State Orchestra, Jackson will perform with 500 of the most talented student musicians from across the state. Jackson will proudly take center stage at Symphony Hall in Boston on Saturday, March 4, 2023.

As a hardworking, passionate musician, Jackson consistently demonstrates those qualities we strive for at Marlborough High School. Introduced to the tuba in fifth grade, Jackson quickly earned recognition by being selected to the Central District Junior Festival in both seventh and eighth grade years and continuing that success throughout high school, by being selected to the Central District Senior Festival in his sophomore, junior and finally his senior year. Additionally, he was selected into the All-State Festival during his junior and senior year. Jackson plans to major in Architecture and minor in Music Performance.

Congratulations to Jackson Clemons and the entire Music Department
